PORTAGE HIGH SCHOOL
PORTAGE, MICHIGAN

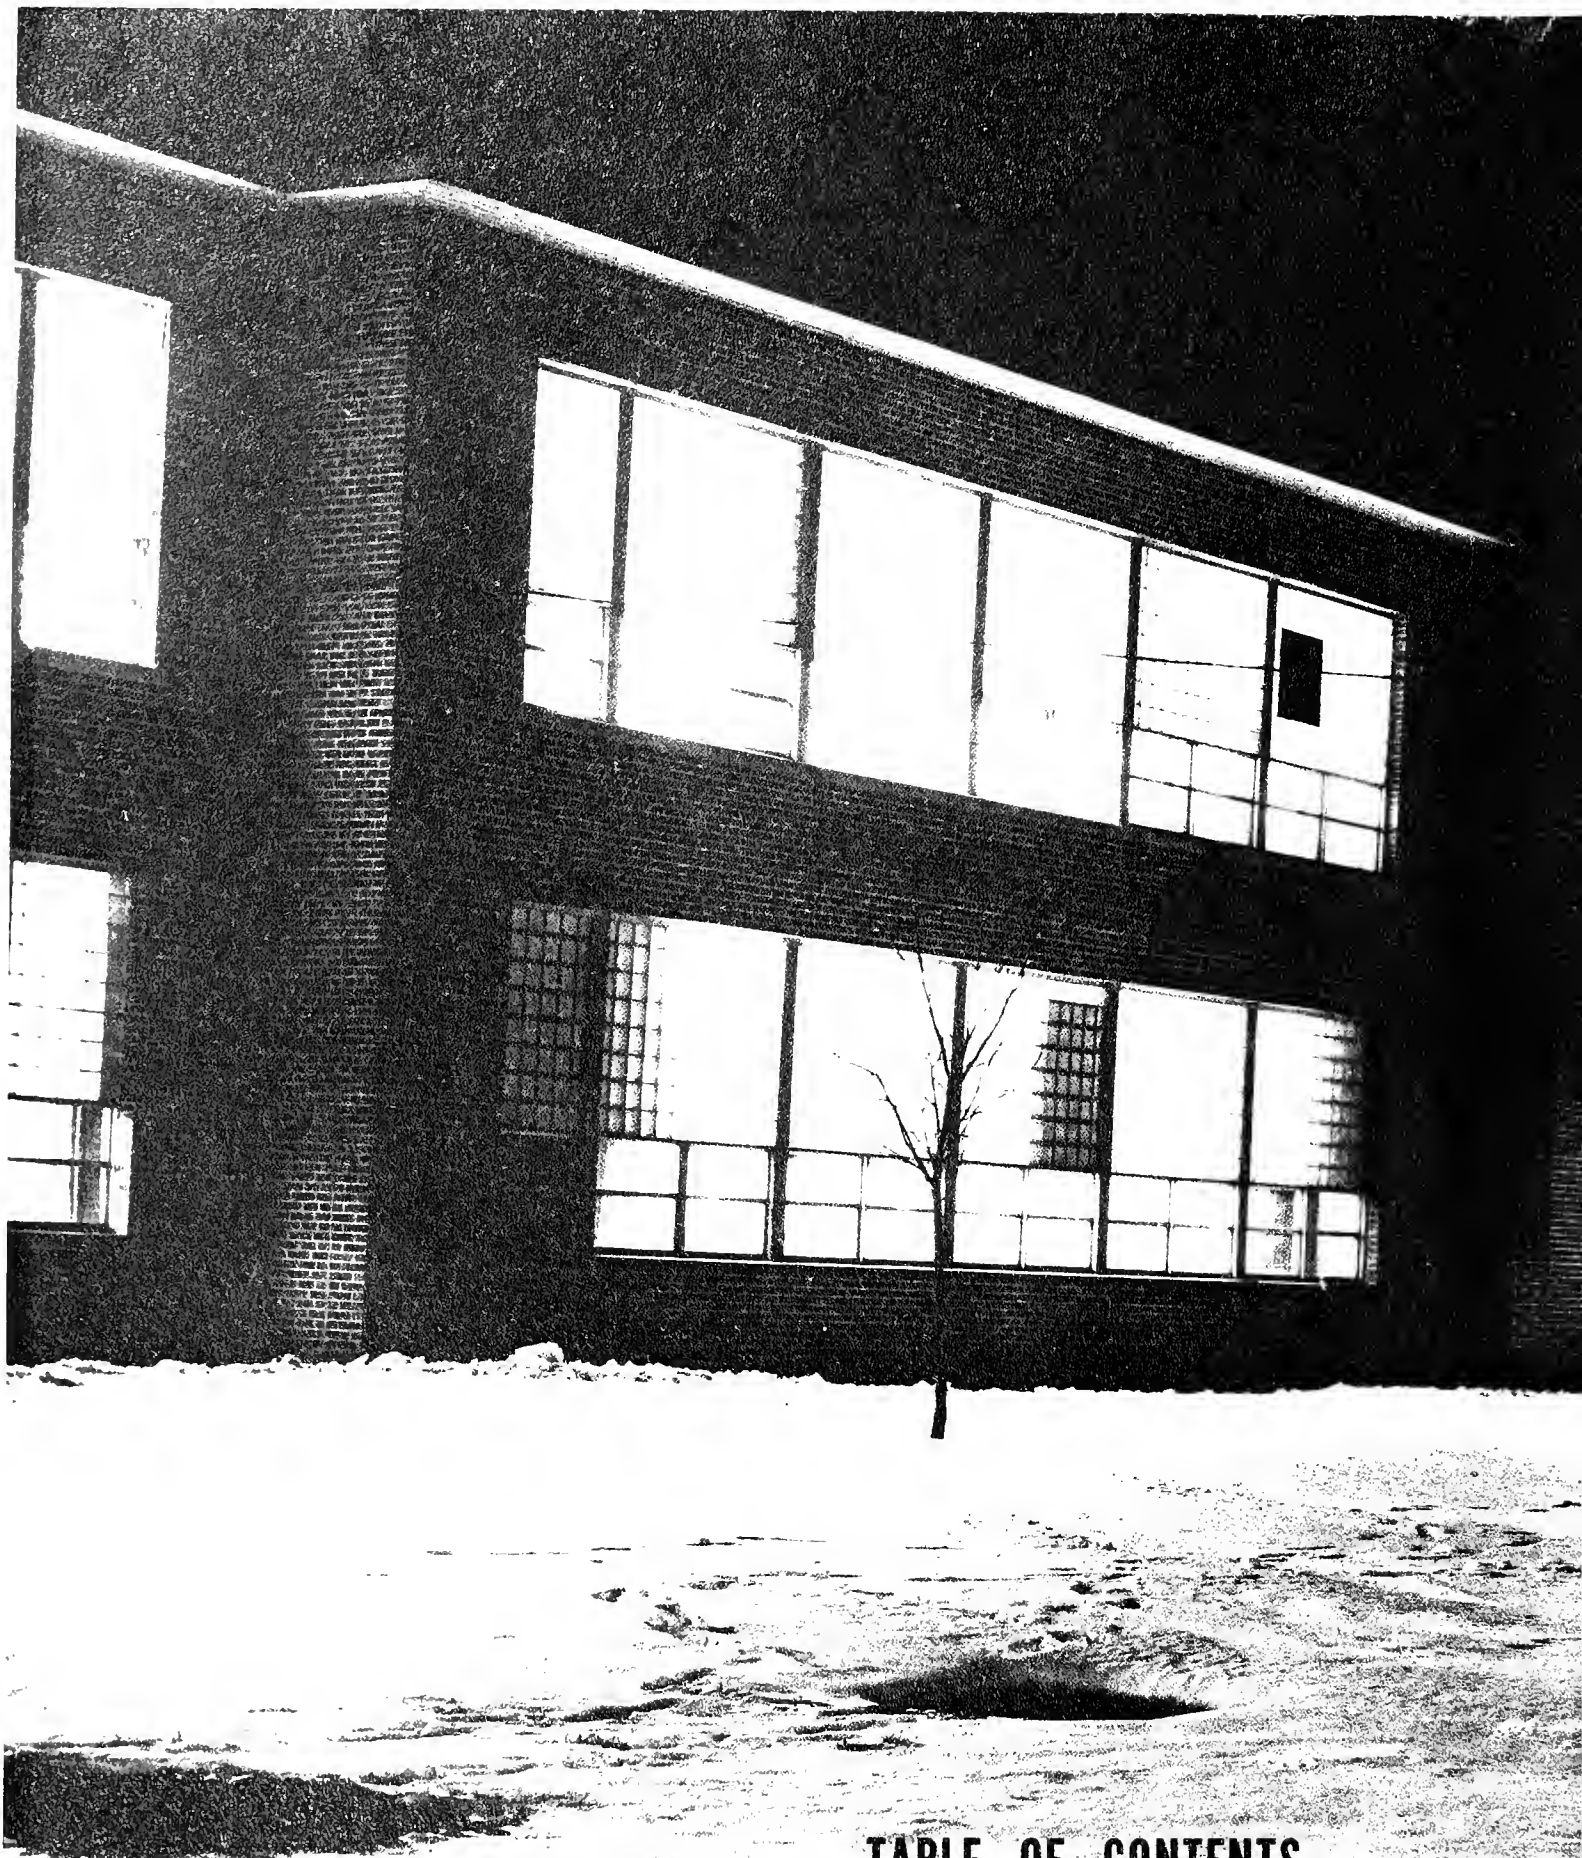

TABLE OF CONTENTS

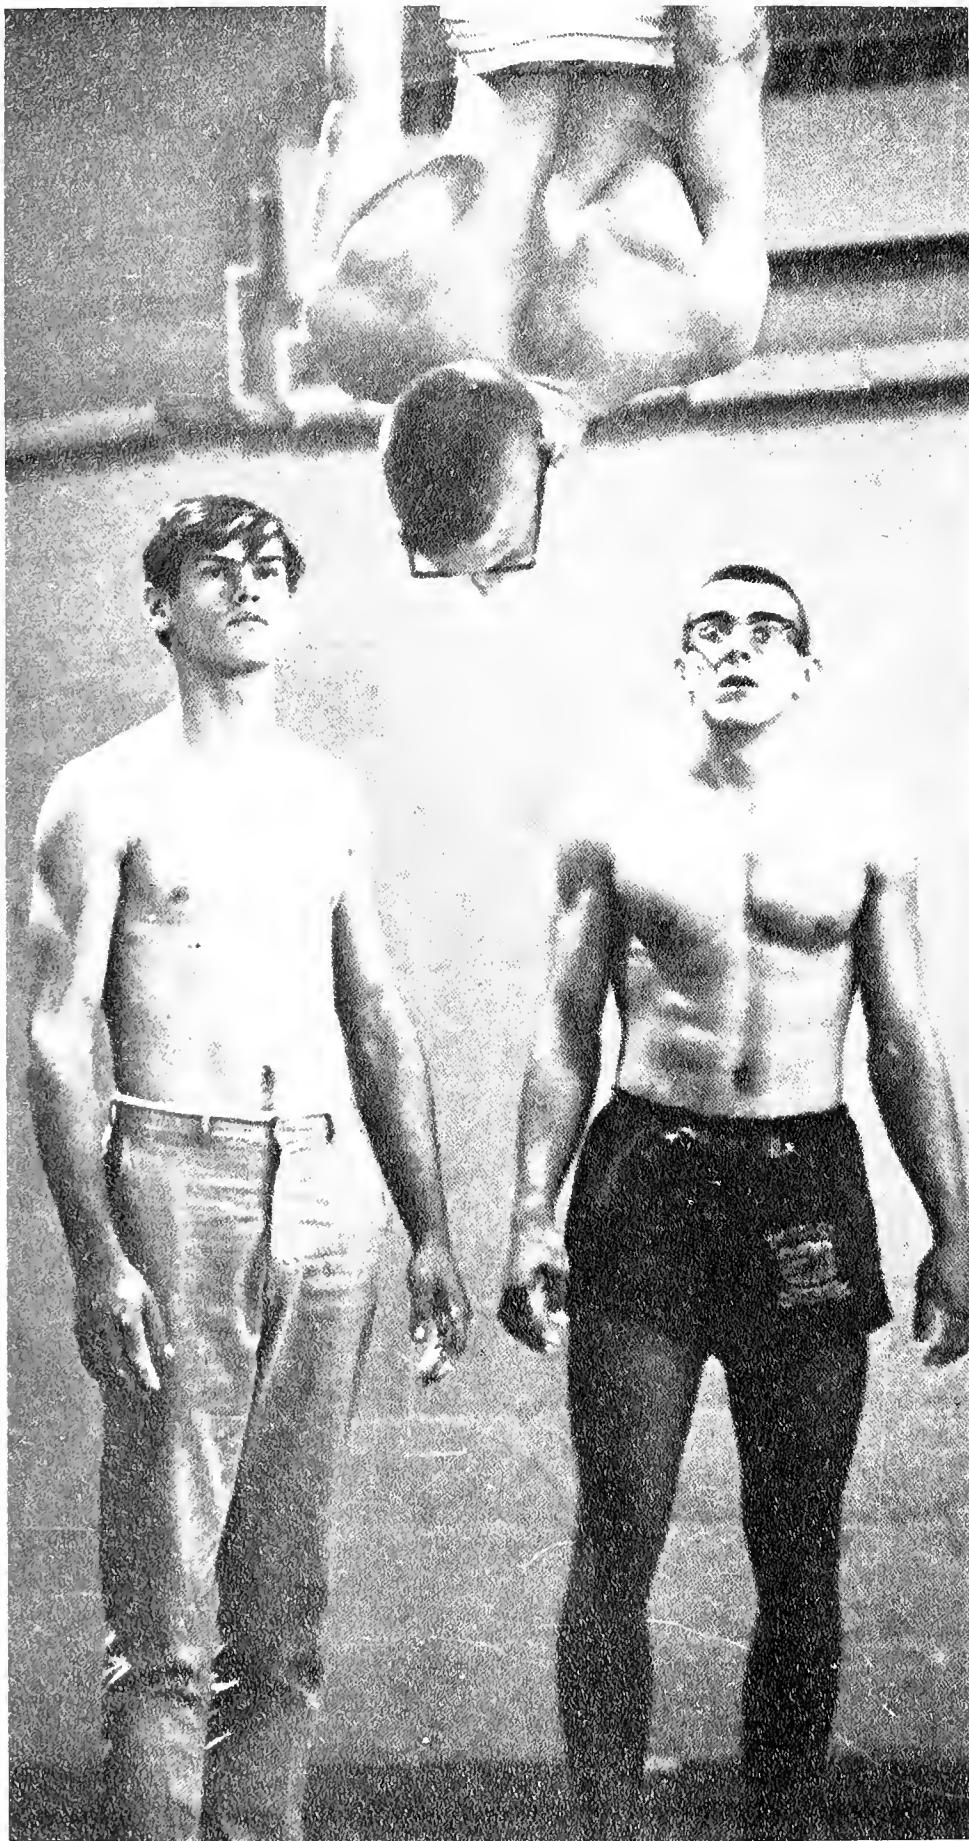

FOREWORD

The Roundup staff, in keeping with the name of the book, has tried to offer you a roundup of the experiences which portray the ways in which we spend our high school lives: the gaining of knowledge and skills from curricular studies, the clubs and activities, the musical groups, athletic teams, plays, dances, and even the everyday noon and activity period chats with friends. It is this combination of work and pleasure that will prove to be both memorable and of greatest value.

As the days and years, and perhaps the miles, away from high school lengthen, we hope that this book will come off the shelf or out of the attic and revive the memories of the high school days we will always cherish.

My nose itches.

And it's only Monday . . .

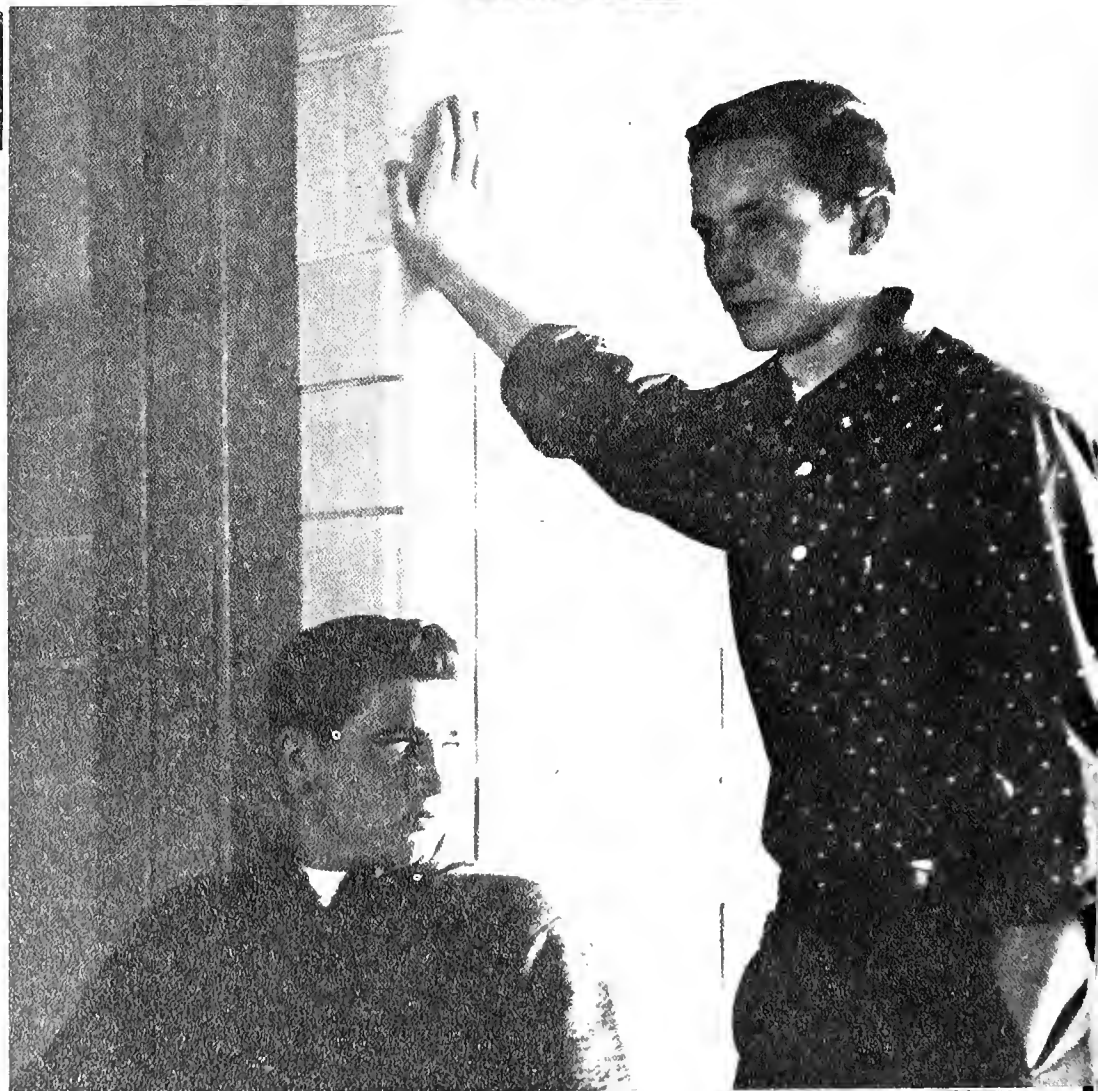

STUDENT LIFE

She's on her way up!

An apple a day.

Act innocent. Here he comes.

Yep, I've heard it all before.

Yes dear . . . Yes dear.

Oh-oh! Lost that place again.

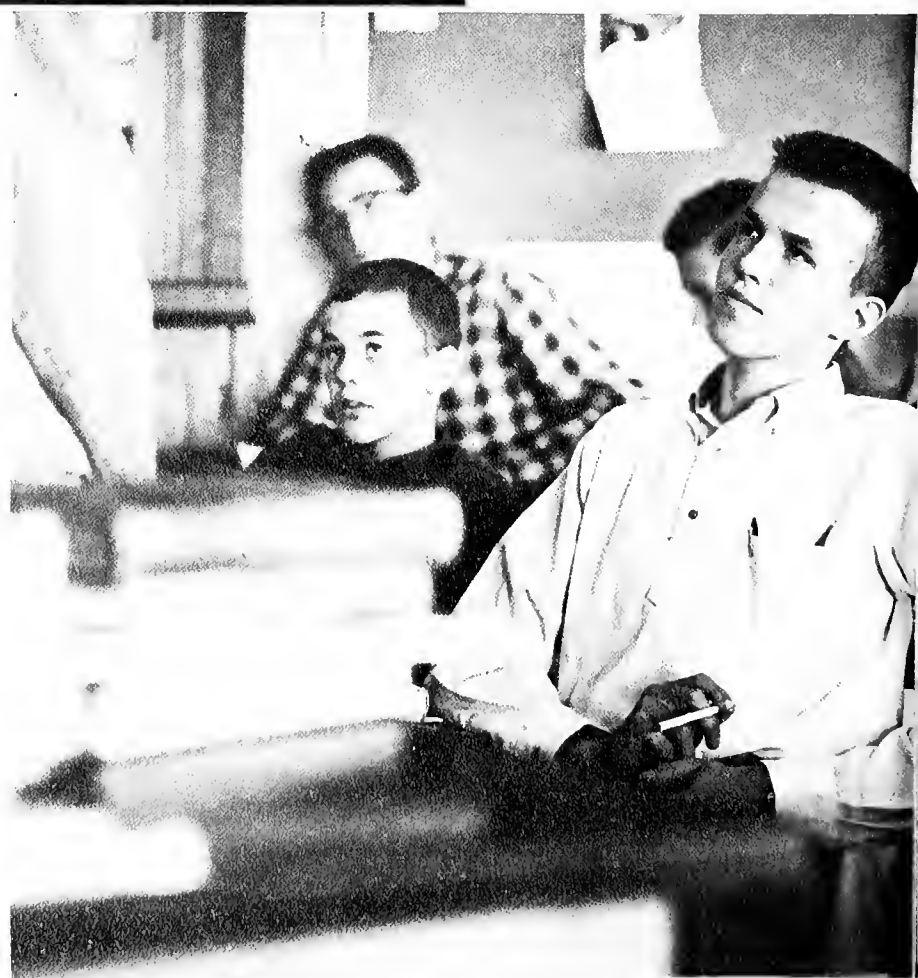

Customers on strike!?!

Now this little doohickey here . . .

There we were — full count with a man on third.

Two and two is five?

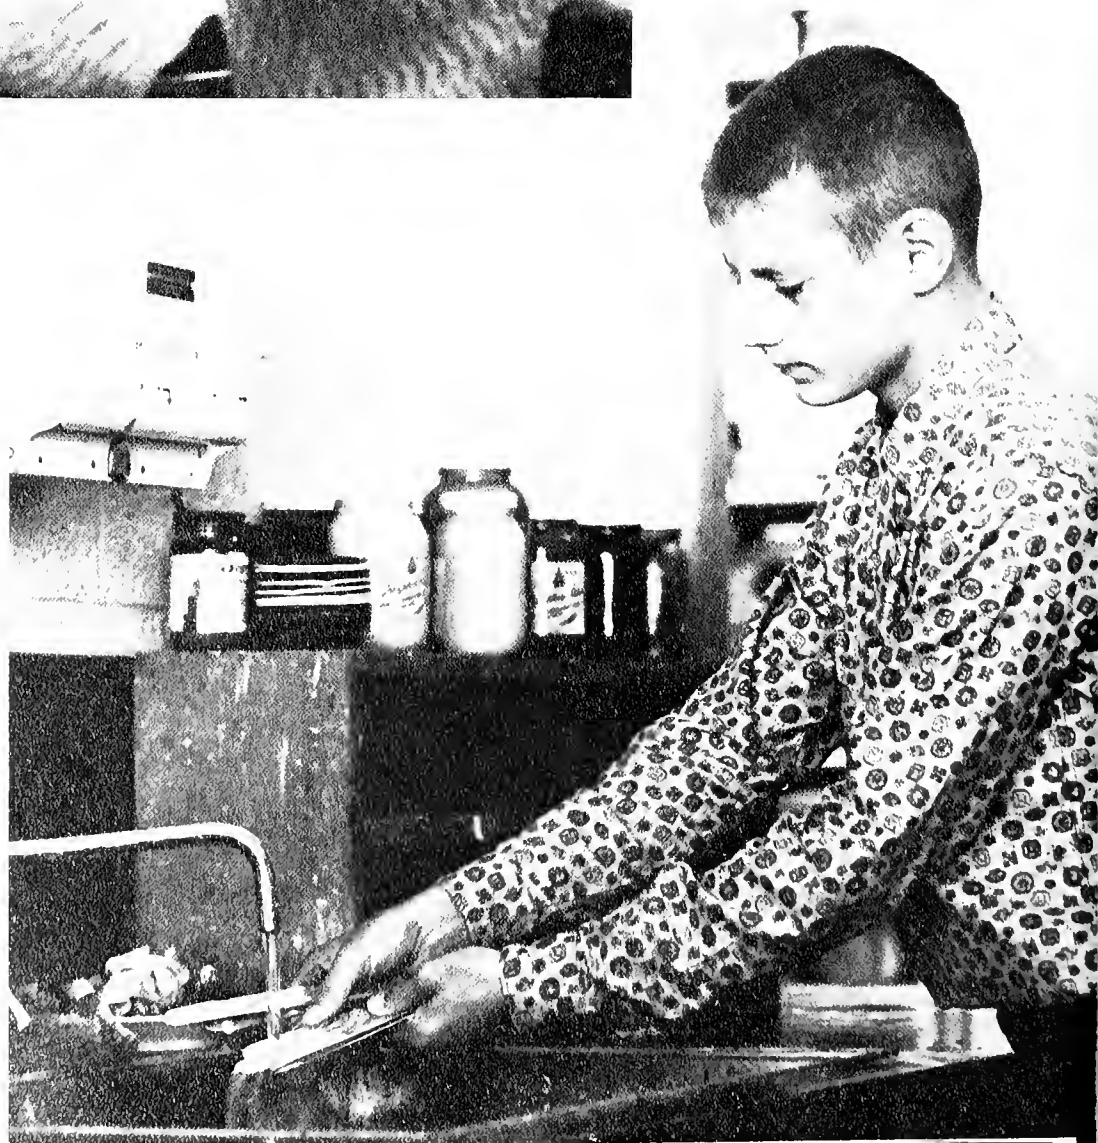

Ready for kick-off!

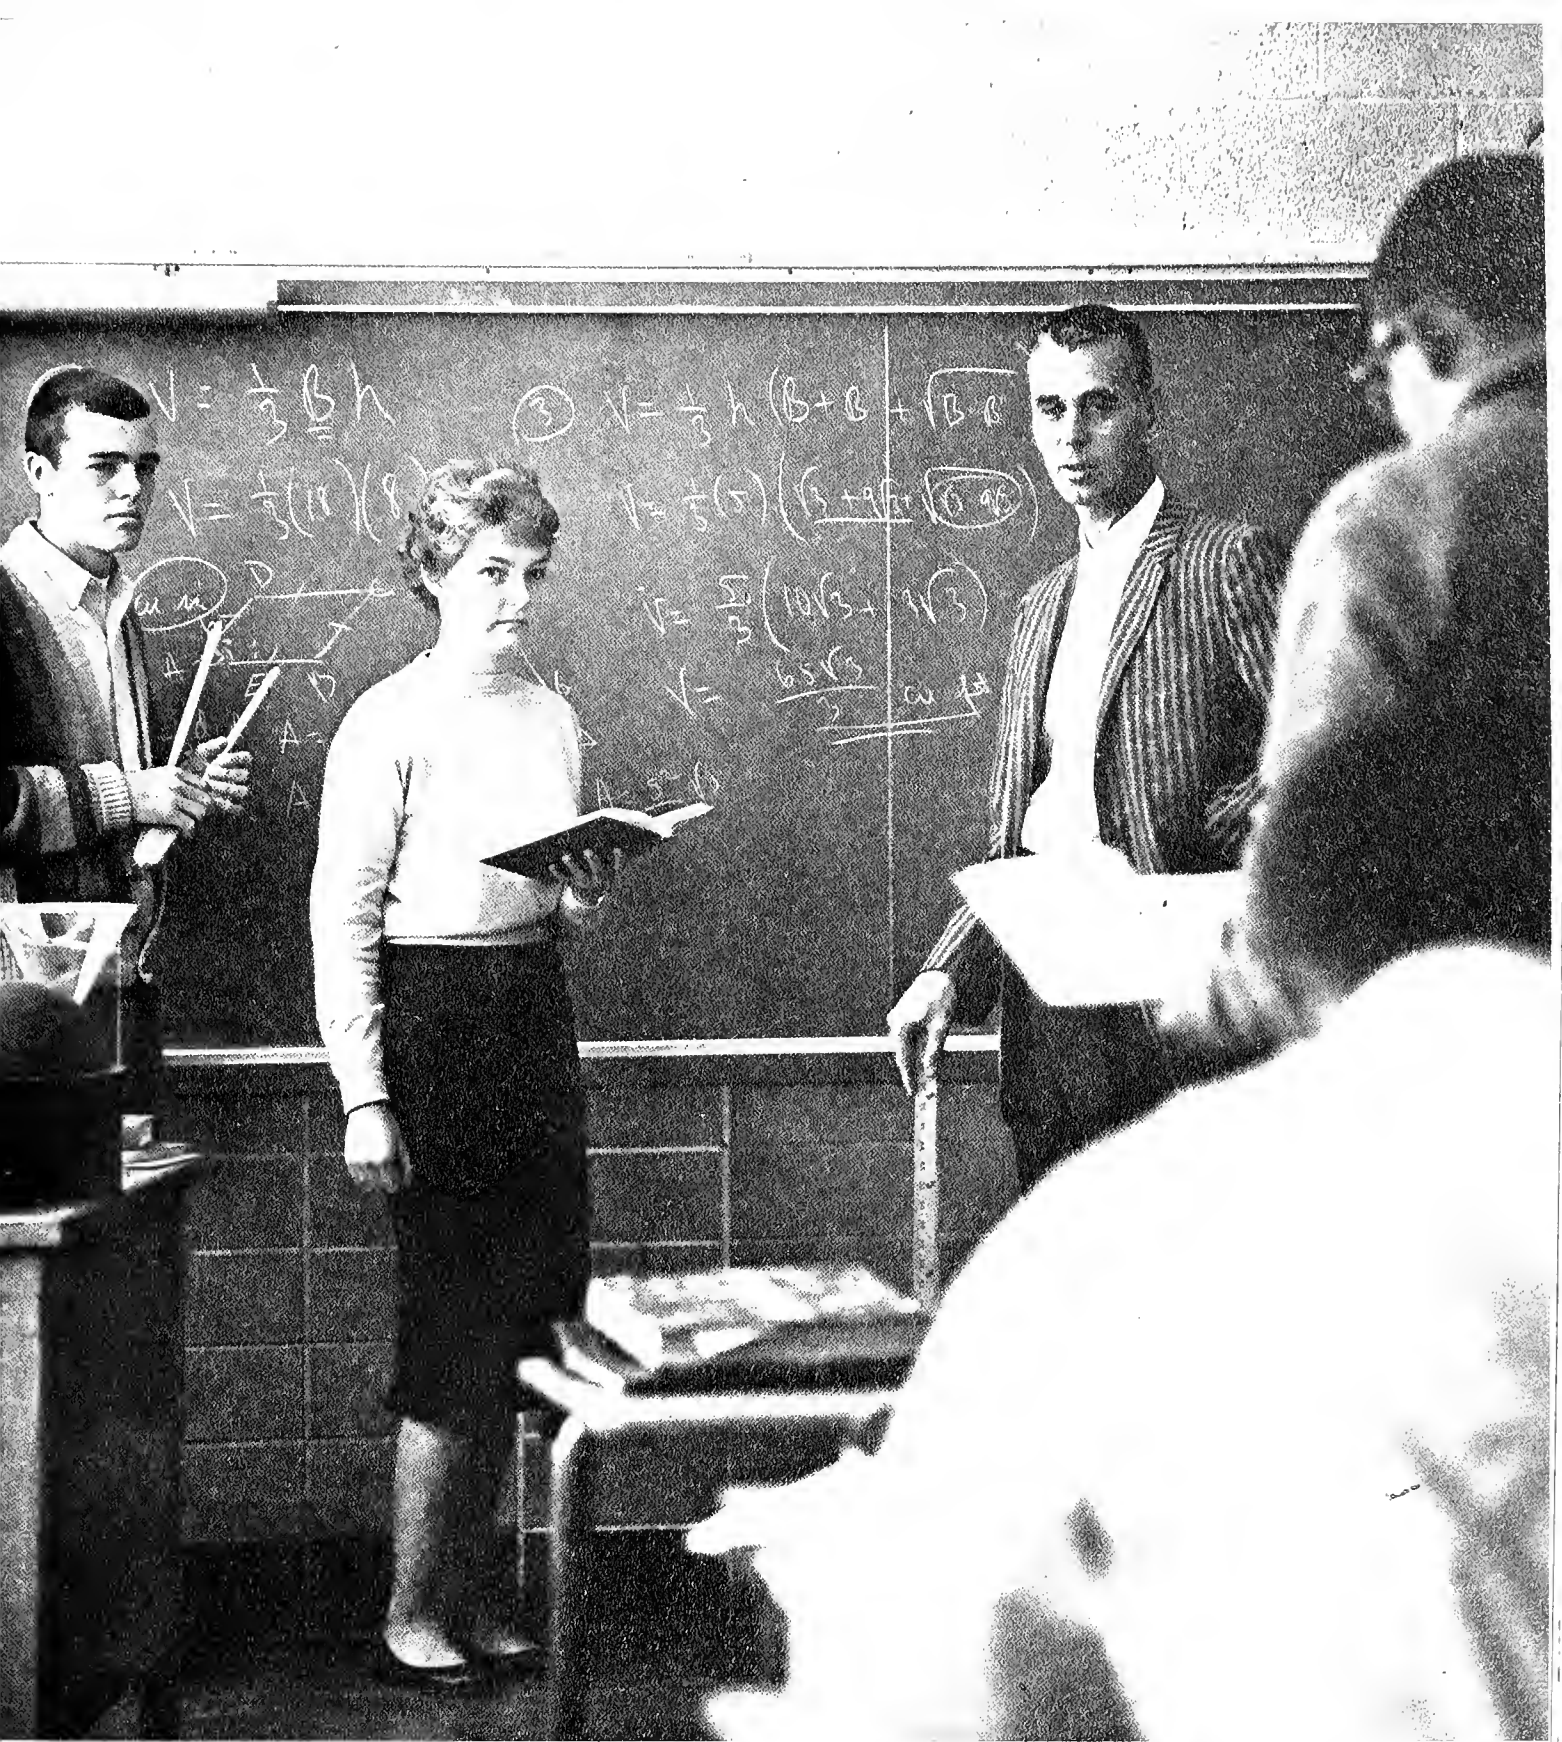

Oh, Really !

Oh-oh! The bell is ringing !

You know — like square.

Dr. ROBERT VANDER ROEST, President

Mr. ABE DE BOER, Treasurer

Mr. EDWARD BELSKY, Trustee

BOARD OF EDUCATION

As our school system keeps pace with the rapid expansion of our community the responsibility of our school board is greatly increased. They have met these increased demands, and have continually tried to improve the efficiency of our school, its personnel and curriculum.

Dr. ROBERT GREKIN, Trustee

Dr. ROBERT SMITH, Trustee

Mr. GUY BENSON, Trustee

Mr. ROBERT THOMSON, Trustee

PRINCIPAL

Our high school is smoothly and efficiently run because of the hard work and devotion of our principal, Mr. Martin. In his quiet way he makes it possible for us to achieve a high degree of scholastic efficiency. Our sincere thanks to you, Mr. Martin.

SUPERINTENDENT

Under the guidance of Mr. Wilkinson the Portage School System has earned for itself a place of prominence in our community and state. He is truly a friend to all of us and takes a sincere interest in the student and student's activities.

MR. VERMEULEN

As the head of teacher personnel and curriculum, it is the responsibility of Mr. Vermeulen to secure qualified faculty members and to maintain the high curriculum standards typical of our school. He has established a record in which we can be proud.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. PELLOWE

The important job of assistant to the principal is more than adequately performed by Mr. Pellowe. With the rapid growth of our school, the duties and responsibilities of this job have increased and Mr. Pellowe has kept these things in order.

MR. BEKKEN

Mr. Bekken, as head of transportation, has done a commendable job in supervising the transportation corp of our school system. In addition to these duties he is in charge of the custodians, who keep our school clean.

MR. CANDOLI

The position of business manager is vital to the success of our school system. Mr. Candoli has done an excellent job in this area. It is his job to see that the books balance and that the funds of the school are budgeted wisely.

MR. EVANS

As dean of students, Mr. Evans is responsible for school harmony, and is always trying to keep the students happy and contented with their place in the school and its activities.

A responsible and serious student, a fun-loving and loyal friend, an avid and skilled musician — Dave Sanford was all of these. The untimely passing of our classmate has left a void in each of our lives. As a symbol of our feeling for Dave, his picture opens the section of those he knew and loved so well.

His classmates

First Row (l to r): Mr. Pellowe, Rob Staffen, Nancy Sliter, Marty Wellman, Tom Vanderberg, Sue Lotva, Norb Kurtz.

HONORS BAND

The honors band, composed of the top third of the regular band, is another asset to our school spirit. The band plays both swing and march music at pep assemblies and home basketball games.

DRUM MAJOR AND MAJORETTES

L to R: Sharon Stinnett, Naomi Hahn, Maryann Stimson, Jaellyn Houston, Maryann Hayes.

Leading our marching band onto the football field we find drum major Ray Greer and our five majorettes. In addition to their fine job during football season, the majorettes participated in the largest mass twirling exhibit ever at the University of Michigan.

Many students who are not planning to go on to college find it quite an advantage in being able to participate in the cooperative training program. This provides the students with proper training and experience for deciding on future work.

The members of the Bible Club and Miss Smith, advisor, have had another interesting year of programs and projects. The programs include speakers, movies, and discussions. One of the projects they participated in is supporting a Korean child. The students who participate in this interdenominational club are interested in Christian fellowship.

The members of the Future Homemakers of America and Mrs. Abnet, advisor, participate in many activities throughout the year. These include providing Thanksgiving baskets for needy families, making homecoming corsages, and entering a float in the football homecoming.

FTA

Mrs. Ritsema and the members of the Future Teachers of America have participated in another year of interesting activities. Among these are guest speakers and group discussions. Several senior members have been participating in the cadet teaching program which gives them experience teaching in the elementary and junior high schools. Through this program the cadet teachers take charge of the class and present the subject. They also give help to the students during study sessions.

DEBATE

This year the members of the debate team were advised by Miss Vanderberg. The members gained valuable debating experience by taking the pro and con sides of different subjects. This is done between the members of the Portage team and other schools also.

First Row: Lois Wenke, Marty Wellman, Sara Goldstein, Miss Vanderberg.
Second Row: Bob Donia, Naro Youells, Bob Oudsema, Cheryl Golden, Gene Lover.

FORENSICS

This year Miss Vanderberg coached and instructed the members of the forensics team. The students have a choice of work in five areas in which they speak. These are: dramatic reading, humorous reading, declaration, original oratory, or extemporaneous speaking. The members give speeches between themselves and compete with students from other schools.

Front: Rob Staffen, Miss Vanderberg, Judy Matrau, Helen Lovett
Back: Denise Magermon, Jan Allen

PEP CLUB

The major goal of the pep club is to create a better school spirit among the student body. Some of the things the club does to inspire the spirit are to sponsor the busses to away games and give the pep jug to the loudest cheering class. The club is also fortunate to have the school mascot, Winnie, as one of the members.

MONITORS

The student monitors give up their study hall to sit in the halls to check the people who are out of class. They also have charge of the honor study halls. Mr. Evans as the advisor feels the students take over more responsibility if they are given the chance.

First Row (l to r): Sharon Walker, Joan Hanger, Sandy Bingham, Gayle Adams, Hart Bichler, Fran Kribs, Betsy Welch, Sharon Bulsan, Marj Haelzle.

USHERS

The members of the Ushers' Club are at the plays and important assemblies during the year where they hand out programs and help the audience to find seats. The Ushers' Club is under the direction of Miss Buehler.

In its second year, the Y-Teens have enjoyed an interesting year. The organization is one of service in which the members help others. Two of their service projects were cleaning the trophies in the cases, and changing the sayings seen in the halls. Some of their other activities were sponsoring a dance after a game, and selling refreshments during one of the games. Miss Mohny is the advisor of the club.

CHESS CLUB

Second Row: (l to r): Bob Miller, Jim Riegel, Mr. Brown, Karen Timm.

The members of the Chess Club have had another enjoyable year. With Mr. Brown as the advisor, the members first learn the basic skills of chess. After mastering these, the members go into the more complicated techniques. Each of the members has the hope of becoming a great chess player.

SCIENCE CLUB

The purpose of the Science Club is to give an insight into scientific occupations to people who are interested. The main project that the club worked on was helping to support the Kalamazoo Nature Center for the development of Nature Conservation in Kalamazoo. Mr. Roger Burns is the advisor for the club.

The advisor of the Junior Red Cross, Mrs. Miles, has helped to plan successful activities for the members of the club. Among the activities are visiting the sick in hospitals and the aged in rest homes.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the student governing body of the school. It is made up of two committees, the Welfare Committee and the Social Committee, five officers, a foreign student, and 34 representatives. It is the responsibility of the council to sponsor assemblies, scholarships, cheerleaders, dances and clubs. Also it puts on the Christmas Formal, the Variety Show, and a special project each year. The advisor for the Student Council is Mr. Evans.

Second Row: Marge Haelzle, Jaann DeKam, Diane Smith.

WELFARE COMMITTEE

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Headed by First Vice President Gene Culley, the Social Committee has had another enjoyable year. Again they are involved in the planning of the dances after the games. Because of this committee, the Christmas Formal is continually a big hit. Another committee of the Student Council is the Welfare Committee. As a branch of the Student Council, it works to inform the students of the many activities during the year. This committee is headed by our Second Vice President Janet Slavin.

First Row (l to r): Janece Barr, Gene Culley, Theresa Corda, Mike Varst.
Second Row: Jan Richards, Joanne Smith, Kathy Nash.

YEARBOOK

STAFF

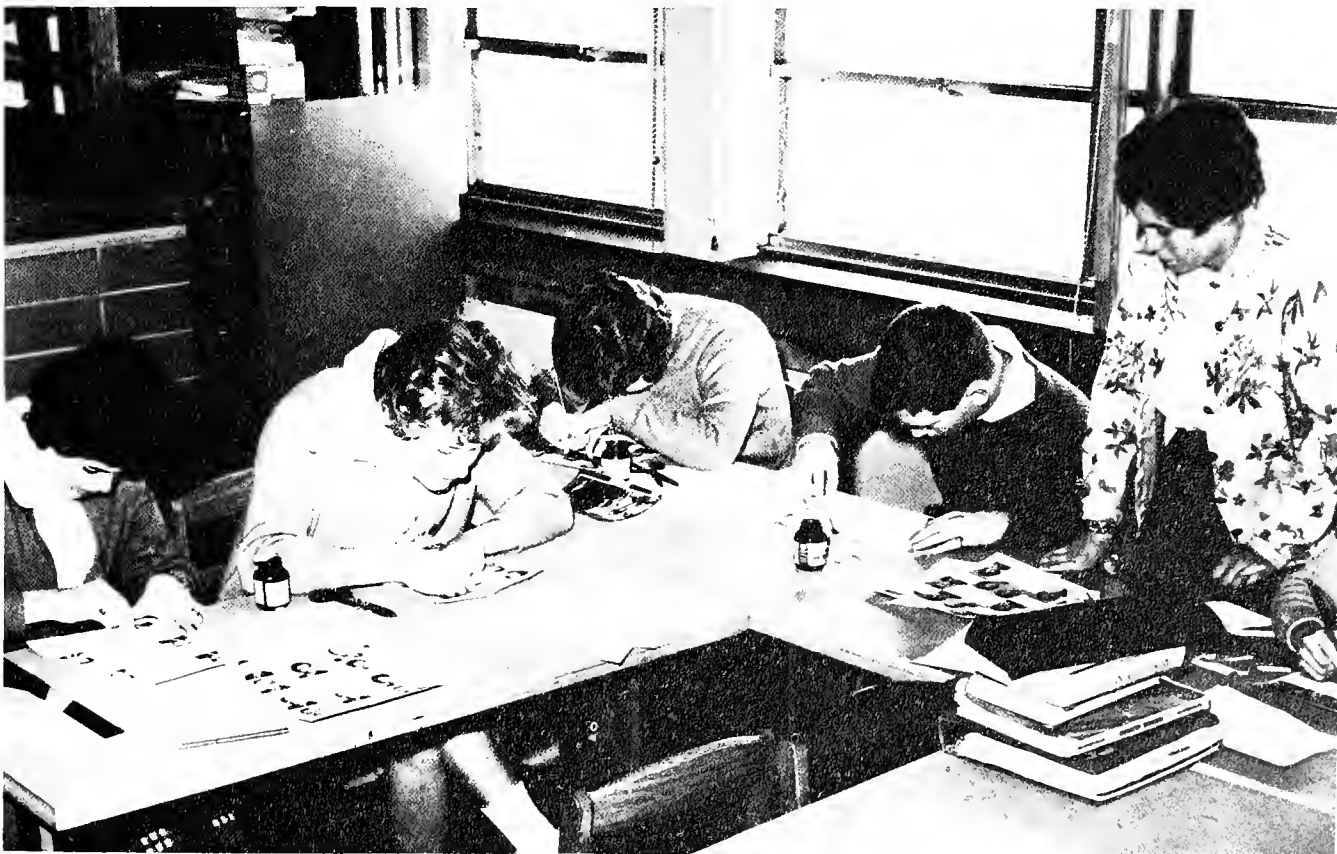

Each year the Yearbook Staff does its best to make improvements over the previous yearbooks. This year we have added the student life section to help bring out all the things going on in our school. This also adds attractiveness to the Annual and promotes interest in our school.

The staff of the 1961-1962 school year consists of thirteen members plus the advisor, Mr. Sterner. These members have worked very hard on all phases, including, writing copy, arranging pages, setting up the taking of pictures, and advertising. We hope that our efforts will be appreciated by you.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The students who make up the National Honor Society are the ones who have shown outstanding qualities of scholarship, leadership, character and service. The candlelight induction ceremony marks the beginning of a busy role for the National Honor Society members. Mrs. Schoenhals, as advisor, supervises this organization's many activities which include providing a scholarship for a worthy senior.

The Business Club is for those who are taking business courses and who want to learn about business occupations. The club visited the new Upjohn office building, put on a skit and had guest speakers who gave them interesting information about working in the business field. Miss Frakes is the advisor.

The initials M. U. N. A. stand for Model United Nations Association. The students involved in this club do research on a country to get general knowledge about the country and its stand on world issues. As a climax to this study, the members attend a model United Nations meeting at Hillsdale College, where they serve as delegates from their assigned country, Venezuela, and take stand in debates and voting. The goal of this club is to better understand the workings of the United Nations and the reasons behind the stand taken by the country they represent. Miss Montanye advises the club.

Mr. Faustman has helped the Thespians through their second successful year. The Thespians are responsible for the dramatic productions at Portage. Ten points are required for a person to become a member of the club. These points are earned by work at the plays and each point involves much effort. The people working toward their ten points by assisting the Thespians on dramatic productions are called Apprentice Thespians and have a club of their own. Special thanks should go to the members of these clubs for the outstanding job they have done this year.

FALL PLAY

Things are looking up for Bernadette's family. Tom Hill brings news of Denny Durham's new job.

Bernadette is in trouble again

Thea Levy applies John Wilkinson's make-up.

The first cure from the spring that the lady gave Bernadette was healing Tam Hill's eyes.

As Martha Beardsley and Linda Christian leave with their lighted candles, the final curtain falls.

The fall dramatic offering of "Song of Bernadette" by Jean and Walter Kerr was a great success. The play was the story of a French peasant girl and a vision revealed to her. In addition to the two performance: here at Portage, the play was presented at Nazareth where it was also very well received. Mr. Faustman did a fine job as director. All persons connected with the play, both the actors and back—stage workers, deserve much credit for making this play one to be remembered.

JERRY VAN DEN BERG CANDY NIXON

The Court: Carol James, Gory Stoner, Lynn Senne, Tom Shenefield.
The Queen: Candy Nixon The King: Jerry Van Den Berg.

The small masks given as favors at this year's halidoy formal will help to bring back memories of a most enjoyable evening. On a cold wintery night the couples traveled to o dimly-lit gym where a green drogon high-lighted the decorations and served to carry out the theme of "Mystical Mischief." The couples danced to the music of Bobby Davidson's orchestra and drank punch served on the bolcony before braving the cold again.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL

Mr. Burns, Mr. Hope, Head Coach; Mr. Hamilton

The football team, despite a 2-7 record, showed great improvement over last year's squad. Besides losing to St. A. and U-High by one point, the Mustangs defeated Loy Norrix 27-7 and trounced St. Joe 46-34. Head coach Harold Hope, who is coaching here for the first year, has much to be proud of in this year's team.

B

Not having to support the injured players fund this year, the Varsity Club was able to participate in many more activities than in the past. Activities such as car washes, popcorn popping, trips, dinners, fun nights, and a formal dance to climax the year were arranged by the club and its advisors—Mr. Tyler and Mr. Woods. The Varsity Club enjoyed a very successful year and added much to Portage.

BASKETBALL

The first half of the basketball season was a promising one for the Mustang cagers. The boys fought their way to a 5-2 record only to be stopped cold with a six game losing streak. Central, Niles, U. High, Norrix, Dowagiac, and St. Joe fell prey to the Portage team which finally ended with a 7-10 record. Although the starting squad was composed mostly of seniors, many fine players will return to next year's team.

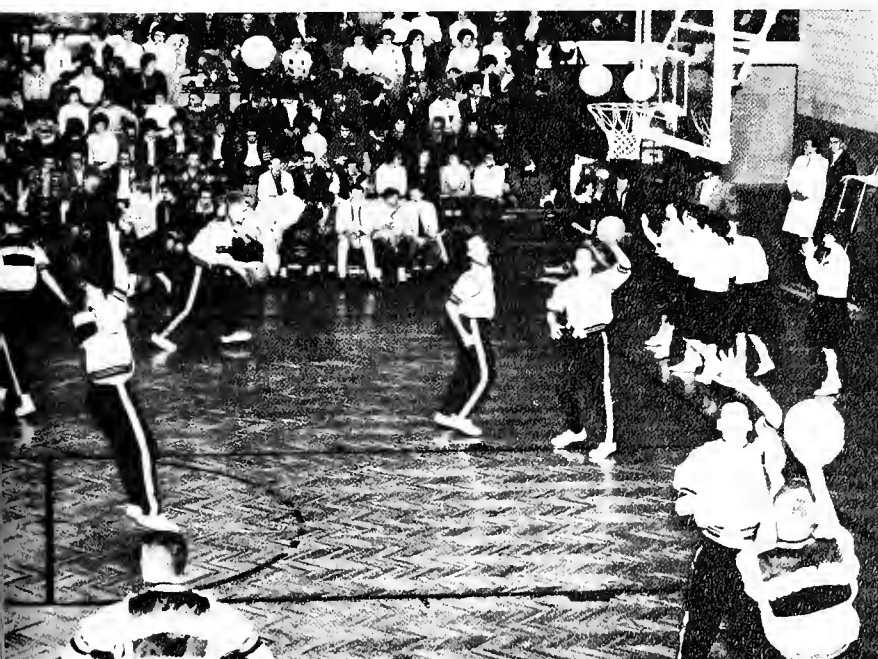

Larry Colburn

The boys on the reserve basketball team deserve praise for their long hours of practice and constant all-out effort during the games. Mr. Hope has coached the boys through many tight places in order to achieve victory. Many of the team hope to play on the varsity next year; we are sure they will provide many victories in the future for Portage.

The 1932 Class D state championship team was honored at Portage's first basketball homecoming. The first Homecoming Queen, Miss Marty Wellman, was crowned during the half-time activities by Miss Joann Peckles, the 1961 football Homecoming Queen. The co-kings, Larry Colburn and Gene Culley, were chosen by their teammates and were crowned at the dance following the game.

Strength and coordination are the requirements for a member of the gymnastics team. In their first year of varsity competition, the boys competed against several schools and put on many fine performances. Mr. Evans coaches the boys in the use of the side horse, rings, high bar, parallel bars, and other exercises.

Ask any member of the wrestling team what the longest six minutes is, and they will describe their own sport. Although the matches only last for this short time, it is one of the most tiring and demanding of all athletic contests. Mr. Hinz coached the team which saw several boys win or place high in the conference. Some of the individual winners were: Vic Valentine—1st; Art Stoner—2nd; Ron Huffstutter, Gary Stoner, Keith Oswald—3rd; Jerry VanDenBerg, Jim Powers—4th.

The intramural basketball teams have their games every Monday night. The boys are divided into two leagues with four teams in each league. To determine the winner, each team plays the other teams in its league three times. Mr. Cloney has continued to do a fine job organizing the games.

INTRAMURAL BOWLING

The Intramural Bowling Program at Portage has 202 members, who meet every Thursday with their sponsor, Mr. Cloney. There are three leagues in the program: the National Girl's League, made up of 10 teams, the Boy's High School League, with 10 teams, and the American Junior Bowling League, consisting of 4 teams. The teams have had a very enjoyable year and are looking forward to another successful year.

CAFETERIA STAFF

The cafeteria staff has done a marvelous job of preparing daily meals. They prepare three different meals designed to please everyone. The whole school very much enjoys the work done by this cheerful group of cafeteria workers.

BUS DRIVERS

Mr. Bekken and his crew of bus drivers take care of the transporting of students to and from school each day. Both the students and their parents appreciate this task done by the bus drivers.

CUSTODIANS

Every day the custodians are busy performing the task of keeping our school clean. They are ready at any time to lend a helping hand. Mr. Bekken, along with his group of five custodians, has performed a marvelous job.

"There's a girl I'd like to know"

"She has so much poise and confidence—I'll bet she works for the telephone company. Those girls are so attractive and have such friendly, pleasant manners."

They're talking about Lucy, who started working for Michigan Bell right out of high school. She was trained by friendly, understanding supervisors and today she's proud of her work; enjoys a fine salary, regular wage increases, and many new friends.

Lucy was delighted from the very first by the clean, pleasant surroundings, by the regularly scheduled mid-morning and midafternoon "breaks" for relaxing in comfortable lounge rooms, and by the opportunities for advancement.

Isn't that kind of job worth going after? Then why not get in touch with us—perhaps there's a telephone job for you. We'll be happy to talk with you about the interesting work at Michigan Bell.

Dear

Boy!

It's hot today
Soon as I finish this letter
I'm going outside with the gang
The building sure looks empty.
Everybody's outside soaking up the sun.

Two more exams and that's
it. Glad it's finally over.

Be seeing you,

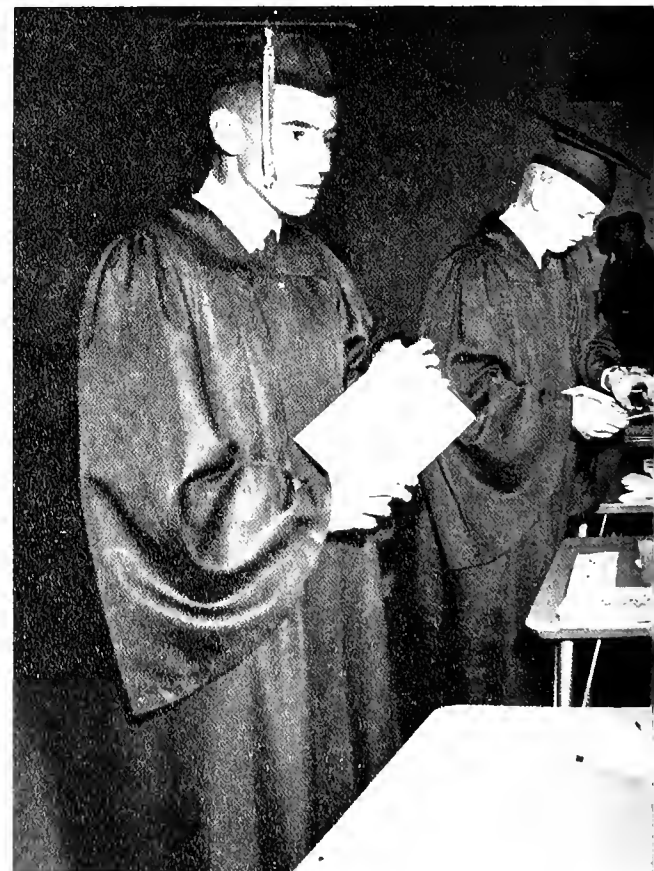

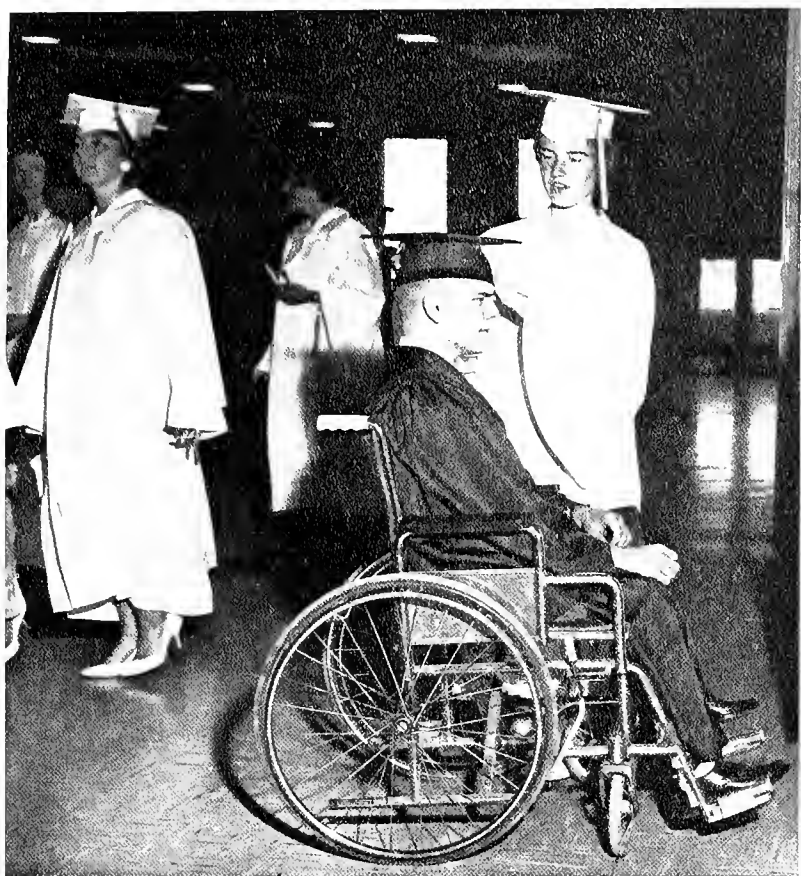

Ready and waiting.

Last minute primping.

An important part of graduation is receiving the class picture.

GRADUATION

June 12, 1962 Mr. Tyler gave the inspirational farewell speech. The seniors solemnly received their diplomas as they thought about their futures. The graduation exercises were a fitting climax to the high school years.

Guest speaker, Mr. Tyler.

Valedictorian, Vivian Robb

Daug Frye, Sandy Miller.

SHOWBOAT

SERENADE

Rob Massey, Kathy Nash, Karen Timm, Larry Garnaat.

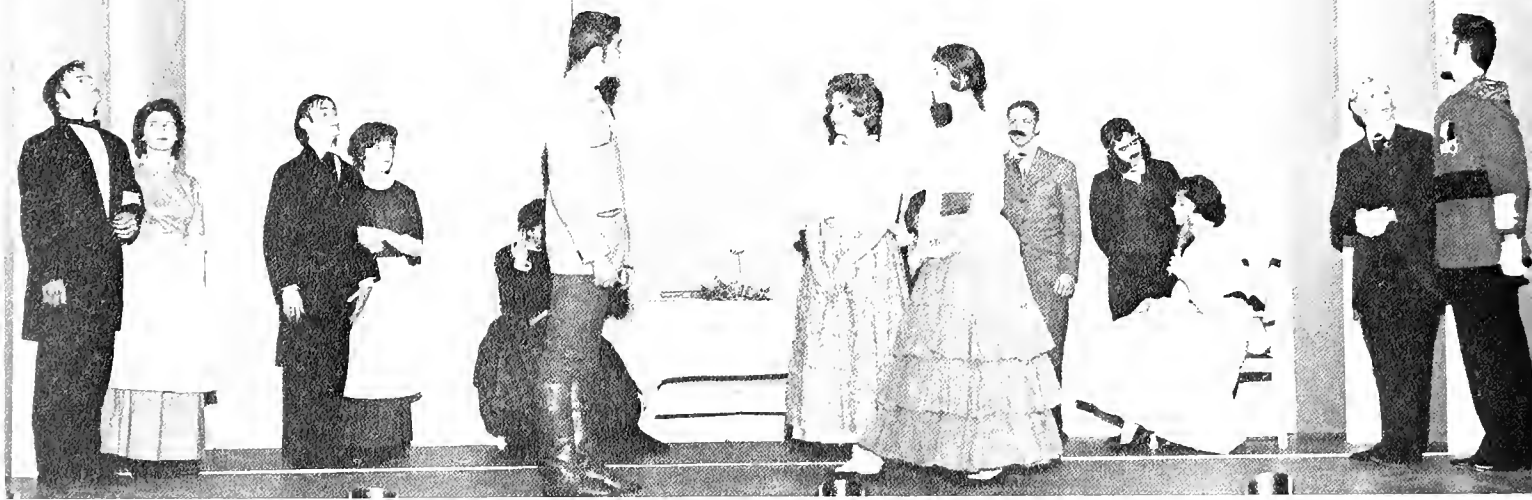

Jerry VanDenBerg, Candy Nixon, Bill Fiebig, Marilyn Vanderberg, Marlene Ryskamp, Norm Schuring.

The South came to life again as the "Showboat Serenade," Portage's Junior-Senior Prom, came into being. The main decoration was the huge showboat which featured a rotating paddlewheel. Presented by the Junior class to the Senior class, the prom was held on May 26 at the North Junior High School cafeteria where couples danced to the music of Don Neol's orchestra.

Dave Draper, Tam VanderWeele, Rab Staffen.

OUR AMERICAN COUSIN

Our American Cousin, written by Tam Taylor, is the story of a straightforward American and his encounter with his very proper English relatives. This play was being presented in Fard's Theater when Lincoln was shot and the actors and back-stage crew successfully attempted to create the atmosphere of a 19th century theater. To Mr. Faustman, director, and all others connected with the play, congratulations on a job well done.

Tim Evans, Dick Tanner, Tom McAllister.

Carol Degen, John Wilkinson.

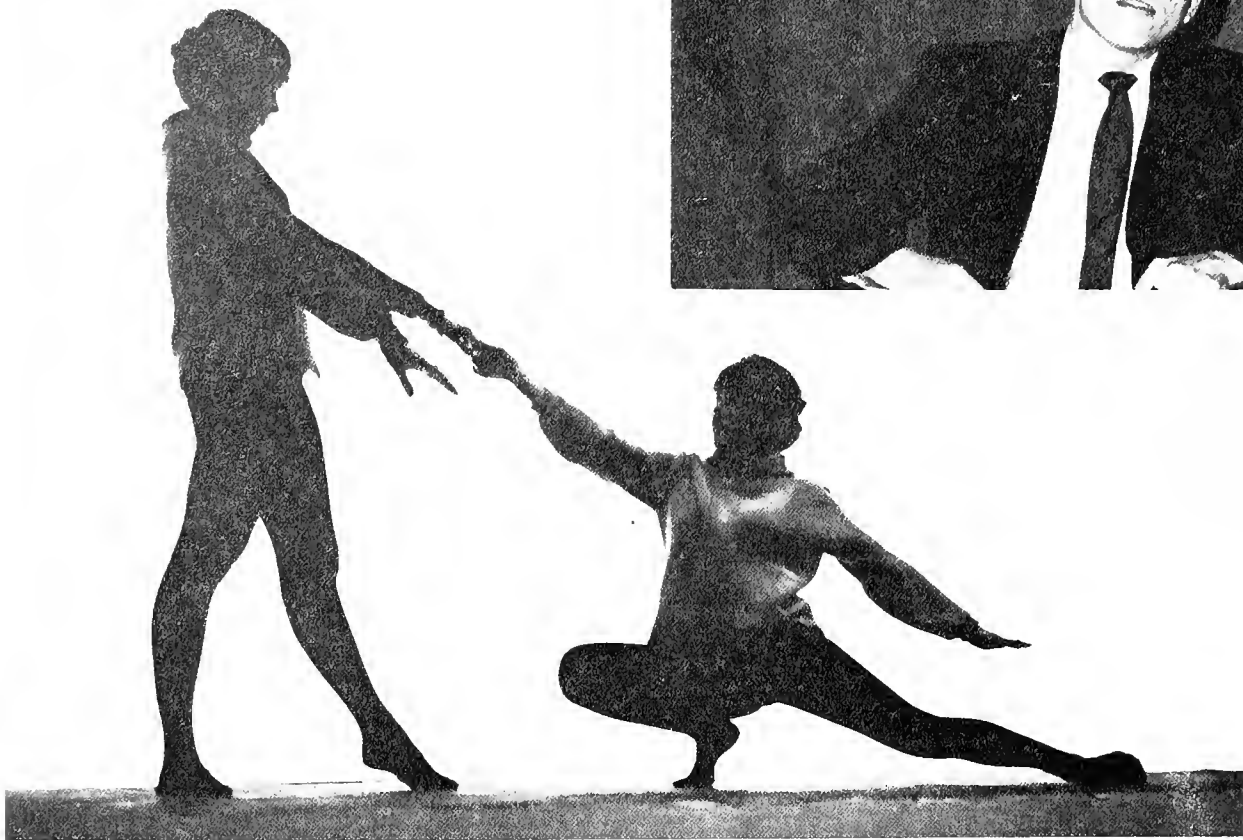

Tom Hill, Margo McIntyre, Alice Fish.

MUSIC IN COLOR

Dick Dombos

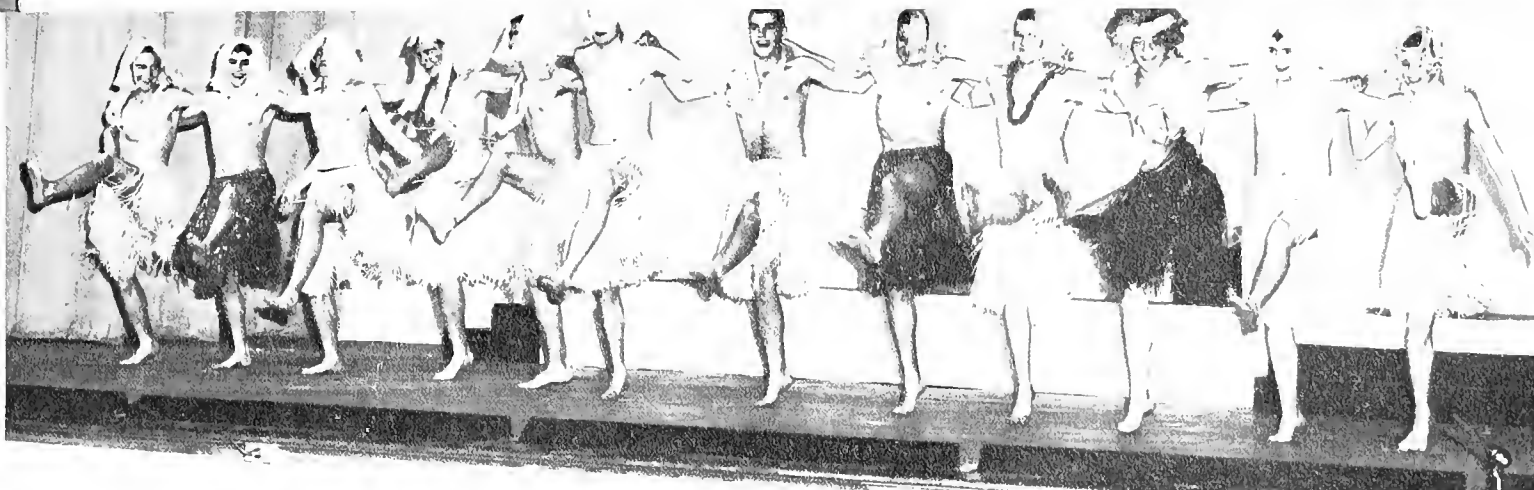

Marlene Ryskamp, Penny Shenefield.

The 1962 Variety Show was bigger and better than ever before. The theme, "Music In Color," was carried out very effectively through the dramatic use of different colored lights on the various acts. These acts appealed to a wide range of interests in that they included everything from three chorus lines, to gymnastics, to modern dance, to piano solos. Because each person in the audience could find some act suited to his own taste, the show was greatly enjoyed by all.
